Challenged by Challenging Behavior?

Thursday, December 3, 2009

Presenters:

Kim Yanek, Behavior Specialist TTAC-ODU
and

Linda Ingleson, Early Childhood Specialist TTAC ODU

Target Audience: teams of early childhood teachers, administrators, paraprofessionals, school psychologists, and school social workers.

Have you found that after implementing recommended practices for decreasing challenging behavior in young children you are still facing challenges? For example, you have:

- Built a supportive and nurturing relationship with the child
- Designed a high-quality environment including schedules and clear expectations
- Used targeted social-emotional supports

Nonetheless, challenges still exist. If you would like further support for working with young children who exhibit challenging behavior, this workshop is for you! Participants will learn how to determine the meaning of behavior and develop a behavior support plan with appropriate interventions for young children.
